HISTORY

of the

Lake County Title Company

The first abstracts to lands in Lake County were made by S. D. Clark, Recorder, who served from 1865 to 1872.

1872—The first abstract office was opened by Amos Allman, who previously had been Deputy Recorder, and Recorder.

1888—The firm name was changed to Amos Allman & Sons, and in 1897 to Allman Brothers.

1890—The partnership of Morton, Griggs & Ames was formed, changed in 1892 to Morton & Griggs, acquired by Sasse & Dinwiddie in 1900, and operated from 1903 to 1905 as The Dinwiddie Company.

1905—Allman Brothers and The Dinwiddie Company merged under the firm name of Allman Bros. & Dinwiddie, incorporated as such in 1908, and in 1910 the name of the corporation was changed to Allman Gary Title Company.

1905—Lake County Title & Guaranty Company incorporated.

1930—Lake County Title & Guaranty Company and Allman-Gary Title Company consolidated as Lake County Title Company, and it became the owner of all of the records of the previous companies, and maintains the same high standard of abstracting set by them.

Lake County Title Company Owns the Only Complete Set of Abstract Books in Lake County
